"We are excited to get these stores opened up, and we are pushing to get this done as fast as we can," said Parker Sullivan, vice president of operations for the New Hebron-based company that already has a Flora location. "We want Gluckstadt residents to have a grocery store nearby, so they don't need to drive into Madison to get groceries." Sullivan's is under construction on the west side of Calhoun Station Parkway near the historic St. Joseph Catholic Church in Gluckstadt.

The Mannsdale location will be at the intersection of Mississippi 463 and Gluckstadt Road and should be opening in the summer 2023.

Sullivan said the Calhoun Station location is coming along smoothly. Macintosh Construction out of Brandon finished the foundation last Saturday and plans to begin construction on the steel frame of the building next week.

GLUCKSTADT — The city is zeroing in on at Distribution Drive location as a more permanent home following a special meeting Monday night.

The city began looking at locations after the last meeting and have found one at 343 Distribution Drive for $6,000 a month that will meet their needs, Mayor Walter Morrison said.

The carpet will need to be cleaned in some spots and the current insurance requirements in the lease exceed the insurance offered on their plan, he said. The current lease asks that the city have $1 million in liability insurance whereas the city's plan covers up to $500,000.

City Attorney John Scanlan said the board could approve a motion to enter a lease agreement if they can make the proper changes to the insurance requirements.

Alderman Lisa Williams asked if the carpet cleaning had already been negotiated and she as told that it had.

Morrison said that the building owner would not require a deposit for the city. He said the agreement said that they could move in as early as the first of September and would have access to the building in late August after they signed the lease.

The lease includes an agreement that the city can terminate the lease with six months' written notice. The owners agreement and lease state that the city can pay arrears on Nov. 1 and the city can occupy the facility on or after Aug. 15.

Car charging stations addressed by city

By DUNCAN DENT duncan@onlinemadison.com

RIDGELAND — Electric car charging stations and future landfill use were part of changes to the city's zoning ordinance approved by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

Community Development Director Alan Hart made a presentation to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen during a public hearing at the board's second meeting last month. Approximately eight total sections or topics in the ordinance were amended.

Hart said the amendments would clean up some nonconforming uses in the areas annexed in 2020 and 2016. He said many of the existing properties and businesses would receive "grandfather" status to remain operating as they were before the annexation. Hart said the land-use map of the city has been updated so that currently unused land in the annexed areas is zoned consistently with the city's zoning classifications.

Hart said the amendments add language concerning charging stations for electric vehicles. The language will allow Level 1 and Level 2 electric vehicle charging facilities for residential use to be installed in driveways or car-

He said the charging station classification is a "national standard" and not one established by the city.

Another amendment establishes the stations as an "accessory use" to "principal commercial structures" and "principle industrial structures.

New requirements for new landfills within the city limits were also added. Requirements include a 500-foot setback between landfill activity and adjoining properties with at least a 250-foot buffer of natural vegetation. To be included in the initial design plans of any proposed landfill. They also must be located no less than 5,000 feet from the nearest existing residential struc-Any landfill ture. encroaches on these setbacks will be subject to daily fines.

Landfills will also have to submit a "Good Neighbor Plan" and a "closure" plan.

Ward 1 Alderman Ken Heard said Hart and his team did a "good job" drafting the changes. The amendments passed unanimously 6-0 with Alderman-at-Large D.I. Smith

Lisa Williams said that while Gluckstadt is welcoming of new developments, the city has not yet had a chance to put the proper mechanisms in place to control growth in the city.

"The citizens of Gluckstadt that supported an incorporation were very adamant and have been very adamant and vocal on more service stations and convenience stores and liquor stores and fast food restaurants not being desired in their community and in their city," Williams said.

The city, Williams noted, has appointed members of a new Gluckstadt planning and zoning commission to establish guidelines for future development but the city does not have the proper documents and regulations in place.

"The planning and zoning have appointed, commission has been appointed, and they will hold a first official meeting in the next few weeks," Williams said. "The city welcomes development as any community would, the right kind of development, and the city mayor and board understand that the board of supervisors is still that legal authority to approve or not approve requests for development. Special election moved to mid-September

CANTON — Do-overs in Democrat Party primary races for three wards here are tentatively scheduled for as soon as mid-September, an attorney representing the Canton Municipal Election Committee said.

Voters here had been scheduled to go to the polls as early as Aug. 17 for a redo of party primary elections in Wards 2 and 5 but the redo elections were pushed back after a Democratic Party primary election redo was ordered late last month for Ward 1, said John Martin, the Canton Municipal Election Committee's attorney.

Special Judge Jeff Weill Šr. on June 30 vacated the results of Canton's April 6 Democratic Party primary races in Ward 2 and Ward 5 and ordered redos in those elections as soon as Aug. 17, saying the primary results could not be ascertained. Then, in a separate ruling late last month, Weill also ordered a redo in the city's Ward 1 Democratic Party primary, Martin

"There was a trial last week in the Ward 1 election contest, and he did rule that that race would also go to a special election," Martin said Friday. "I don't believe there has been an opinion or order to that effect

Weill's decisions came after three incumbent Democratic aldermen — Ward 1 Alderman Rodriquez Brown, Ward 2 Alderman Fred Esco Jr. and Ward 5 Alderman Tim C. Taylor — filed lawsuits challenging the process by which candidates were placed on the city's Democratic Party primary ballots saying the process was flawed because of two Canton Democratic Municipal Executive Committees that are mired in ongoing court battles.

The Canton Municipal Election Committee was working to hold the special election for Wards 2 and 5 as soon Aug. 17 until Weill ordered a redo in the Ward 1 race late last month.

Martin said that even though Weill has not yet issued a written order, he believes the goal is to schedule all of the redo elections on the same date.

"The redo, or special election, has been ordered," Martin said. "He made a ruling from the bench but he has not ordered an opinion. I am anticipating that that should be entered soon, but I haven't seen it yet. There will be three special elections for Wards 1, 2 and 5 and I could not tell you the date at this point.'

Martin said he believes the target date for the election is mid-September.

Ridgeland's first cop remembered

By DUNCAN DENT

duncan@onlinemadison.com

Ridgeland's first paid police officer, Lamar Binford Watkins, who died last week at the age of 87, was remembered for his love for Jesus Christ and passion for sharing the Gospel message in his retirement.

Watkins was born July 1, 1934, in Neshoba County and died Aug. 1, 2021, at Hospice Ministries in Ridgeland. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Bobbie Lofton Watkins and a daughter, Cindy Watkins Bryant. The Watins moved to Ridgeland in 1961 and never left.

In July 1970, the year Ridgeland was incorproated, Watkins was hired as the city's first paid police officer. Over the years he also served as Town Marshal, Chief of Police and Court Clerk. Watkins retired in March 1998.

Mayor Gene F. McGee said he primarily knew Watkins as a citizen after his time working for the city and said Watkins was known as a man with a love for sharing the Gospel with people. "I knew him to be a wonderful Christian man who always took time to share Christ with people," McGee said.

Watkins graduated from Dixon High School in 1951, East Central Junior College in Decatur in 1953 and later attended Mississippi College in Clinton.

He served as warehouse manager for Parts Inc. in Jackson for several years before his time with the city. After retirement from his job with the city, he and his wife joined Campers on a Mission.

He was a member of First Baptist Church in Ridgeland since 1962 and served on various committees, taught Sunday School and was a lifetime Deacon. He moved his membership in 2006 to Pine Lake.

He was laid to rest in a graveside service at Ridgeland's Jessamine Cemetery.

Jessamine Cemetery is named

who is known as the father of Ridgeland. In 1853, James B. Yellowley founded the community of Yellowley's Crossing later named Jessamine after his wife and hence the cemetery name.

In 1896, Edward Treakle and Gordon Nichols, two real estate developers from Chicago, purchased the land from Yellowley and established the Highland Colony Company. They created plans for a town to be named Ridgeland and launched an advertising campaign to entice people from the northern United States to move south.

Agriculture was the community's dominant revenue source, with pears and strawberries as the leading crops grown for sale. At the turn of the century the Illinois Central Railroad played a large part in development of the area.

Climate change fail

Diviners of the future have always commanded audiences eager to have a leg up on what's about to go down. Even kings and presidents hang on to the words handed down by prophets of Earth's coming climate. With a fresh forecast for the state of the planet due, it is only fair to Americans who must deal with its conclusions that the predictions lack nothing in validity.

The United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) is set to release one of its periodic assessments on Monday, this one explaining the physical science undergirding its global- warming theory. Americans should welcome clarification. No matter how often they're told modern civilization is threatening the planet's delicate ecosystem by releasing heat-trapping carbon dioxide into the atmosphere, the evidence doesn't fully add up.

The theory faces several shortcomings: For one, computerized climate models have been forecasting temperatures rising at unrealistically steep rates, forcing scientists to search for explanations that can rescue their credibility. "It's become clear over the last year or so that we can't avoid this," Gavin Schmidt, director of NASA's Goddard Institute for Space Studies, tells the journal Science.

The models project global warming, triggered by rising carbon dioxide emissions, climbing as much as 5 degrees Celsius over preindustrial levels — almost double the warming indicated by currently observed patterns, according to the publication. And when fed carbon dioxide readings extracted from air bubbles trapped in Ice Age glaciers, the models calculate a drop in atmospheric temperature twice as deep as the 6 degrees Celsius that actual geological records indicate. Something is amiss.

Secondly, it is not unreasonable to wonder whether the white-hot ball in the sky has some effect on the Earth's climate. Cyclical solar intensity indicated by regular rhythms in sunspot activity has been associated with rising and falling temperature patterns during periods long before atmospheric carbon dioxide concentrations began to rise in tandem with the advent of industrialization. Concluding current warming is all the doing of unnatural human activity may overlook the larger cycles of nature itself.

If climate models exaggerate the effect of carbon dioxide on planetary temperatures, then the periodic IPCC reports could end up serving as a faulty basis for extreme countermeasures. Global restrictions on the use of carbon-based energy discretionary now – could become mandatory, resulting in restrictions on the use of affordable oil and natural gas and a net decline in humanity's overall well-

Ominously, the costs of the so-called "green" revolution are coming into focus. South Africa asserted recently that developed nations ought to boost their contributions for climate-change mitigation projects in poorer countries from $100 billion to $750 billion annually. Similar wealth-redistribution schemes are due for negotiation when the U.N.'s 26th Conference of the Parties kicks off in Scotland

It is only fair that the global body makes a full accounting for the causes of climate change. Anything less would leave the world shortchanged.

Headed for a failed state?

Suddenly, Sunday, a riveting report came over cable news:

The U.S. embassy was urging all Americans to "leave Afghanistan as soon as possible." Message: Get out while you can.

Adding urgency was news that three northern provincial capitals, including Kunduz city, had fallen to the Taliban, making it five provincial capitals overrun since Friday.

The huge investment in blood and treasure by the United States over two decades to remake Afghanistan appears about to be wiped out, whole and entire, and we appear about to sustain our worst diplomatic and political defeat since the fall of Saigon.

Not once in this century has the U.S. decisively won one of the wars it launched — in Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria, Yemen or Libya. And the sole superpower status we enjoyed as the 21st century began is gone with the wind.

Yet America's hawks are urging us to give a new war guarantee to Taiwan, should Beijing exercise its claim, though former President Richard Nixon and former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger assented in 1972 that Taiwan is "a part of China.'

Before we issue any war guarantee to Taipei, we might consider the Pentagon's evaluation of the results of a recent war game in which the U.S. confronted China over Tai-

Here at home, the COVID-19 pandemic, now in a fourth wave, is infecting 100,000 Americans every day, with hospitalizations rising commensurately. For that third of a nation still unvaccinated, the delta variant is a potential death sentence.

Despite this medical crisis that is common to us all, our political divide is manifesting itself in savage battles over vaccinations, masks and man-

And while COVID-19 continues to infect, hospitalize and kill, scores of thousands of Americans are being annually lost to drug overdoses and opioids. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 93,000 overdose deaths occurred across the country in 2020, and 3 in 4 fatal overdoses can be attributed to opioids.

More Americans are dying yearly from overdoses and opioids than all the Americans dead during the war in Vietnam.

The U.S. trade deficit numbers just came in for June, where the deficit in goods alone increased to $91 billion for the month. This translates into $1 trillion a year.

The largest component of that trade deficit is with China an extraordinary level of U.S. dependency on a foreign nation for the vital necessities of its national life, let alone on an adversary like China.

Every month President Joe Biden has been in office, illegal border crossings have increased. In June, Border Patrol recorded 178,000 border arrests — a 571% jump from June 2020. Border arrests have already reached their highest since 2000 and are on track to reach 1.8 million this

Biden is failing in his first constitutional duty - to defend the United States from foreign invasion. We Americans no longer decide who comes into our national home and whom we shall adopt as new citizens. Others decide, others determine our future,

We defend the borders of scores of nations; we cannot, or Biden will not, defend our own. And, as former President Ronald Reagan reminded us, a country that can't or won't defend its borders isn't really a country anymore.

In our great cities, public shootings and killings have begun to exceed those of previous years. Police, under attack and abuse from the elites and people they protect, are resigning and retiring in record numbers.

Consider.

America is unable to win the wars she chooses to fight. She cannot or will not control and defend her borders from a mass migrant invasion. She cannot halt an outbreak of criminality and killing in her great cities. She has not run a trade surplus in four decades. Her dependency upon foreign producers is unprecedented. And her budget deficits continue to break records every vear as does her soaring national debt.

Is that not the description of a failed or failing state?

Asked by a despondent young friend if the defeat at Saratoga and potential loss of the American colonies meant the ruin of Britain, Adam Smith assured him, "There is a great deal of ruin in a nation."

Britain would go on from the loss of her 13 colonies to create the greatest empire since Rome.

Yet if there is "a great deal of ruin in a nation," we Americans certainly appear to be testing those limits.

Dems applaud unconstitutional act

Is a president of the United States flagrantly defying the Constitution an authoritarian act? A threat to democracy? Something that at least should be discouraged or frowned upon?

Judging by the reaction of Democrats and center-left commentators to the lawless lastminute decision of President Joe Biden's CDC to extend an eviction moratorium sure to be struck down in the courts, the answer is emphatically "no."

At the same time, we are constantly being told that, say, a Texas election bill to prohibit drive-thru voting or Tucker Carlson's latest monologue represents dire democratic backsliding, almost none of Biden's allies are raising a peep against a measure that represents exactly the sort of highhanded unilateral rule practiced by authoritarians everywhere.

Indeed, Biden's handiwork is being celebrated. What can he do as follow-up? Suspend habeas corpus? Quarter troops in people's homes?

Biden's move is of a piece with similar executive power grabs by his immediate predecessors. That doesn't make it any better, in fact, it makes it worse. It means that executive lawlessness is becoming an ingrained part of our system. In its own right, Biden's move is especially egregious.

Trump initially issued an eviction moratorium and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention followed up with its own moratorium and extensions, even while suffering setbacks in the courts.

There was never any warrant for any of this. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit wrote that the legal theory the Flagrantly defying the Constitution is an authoritarian act Biden is committing.

government advanced would grant the CDC director neardictatorial power."

At the Supreme Court, there were four votes for blocking the moratorium right away. While Brett Kavanaugh wanted to let the moratorium lapse on its own, he stipulated that "clear and specific congressional authorization (via new legislation) would be necessary for the CDC to extend the moratorium past July 31." Ah, yes — congressional authorization. What a groundbreaking concept.

This is how American democracy is supposed to work - if you have the votes to pass something through the House and Senate, and the president signs it, the measure becomes law (assuming it's not unconstitutional). If you don't have the votes, it doesn't become law.

Given all the discussion lately about how our democracy may be entering its death throes, one would expect there'd be a renewed attachment to this part of the democratic process.

Even the White House briefly seemed on board. "In light of the Supreme Court's ruling," White House press secretary Jen Psaki said last week, "the president calls on Congress to extend the eviction moratorium.'

Then, a funny thing happened: Nothing.

According to news reports, roughly a dozen of House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's own colleagues opposed an extension. So, a majority of the people's representatives were against it democracy had spoken.

That should have been the end of it, especially given that the White House said it had searched for a legal justification for an exemption and found

When Biden reversed course and had the CDC issue another extension, he was, incredibly enough, explicit that "the bulk of the constitutional scholars say it's not likely to pass constitutional muster.'

It's not often a president of the United States admits he's affirmatively violating his sworn duty to uphold the Constitution, but Biden did it - and got fulsome praise from congressional leaders of his own party.

Even though they have custody of the branch of government that is supposed to pass laws, Chuck Schumer and Pelosi were absolutely delighted that the head of the executive branch had, once again, effectively passed one on his own. The true test of devotion to our system is if public officials honor it even when it produces unwelcome outcomes, or whether they try to find extralegal workarounds. Trump abysmally failed this test after the last election, and Democrats — as they did under Obama are showing they are fine with unconstitutional governance so long as it produces their preferred results.

Remember that during their next lecture about how to protect American democracy.

But the eye-rolling was less because the event ran the risk of being branded a coronavirus "superspreader" than because of how bad the optics were of a gigantic party attended by 475 of his "closest friends," including numerous "A-List" Hollywood celebrities and the 200-odd servers hired to wait on them hand and foot.

The optics of the extravaganza at Mr. Obama's palatial $12 million, 29-acre estate in a toney island community off Cape Cod were made worse in light of Democrats such as New York Mayor Bill de Blasio now either unilaterally reimposing or advocating reimposing COVID-19 restrictions on the rest of us.

Taken aback by the criticism, Mr. Obama promised a "trimmed down" guest list of "close family and friends" to make it a more "intimate" event. But the massive tents set up on the Obamas' oceanfront property Saturday night showed that clearly didn't happen. So did the presence of A-Listers like John Legend and Chrissy Teigen, Beyonce and Jay-Z, Gayle King, George Clooney, Tom Hanks, Stephen Colbert, and Steven Spielberg, most of whom likely arrived aboard private jets, greenhouse gases notwithstanding.

The Daily Mail reported that the soiree "began around sunset and lasted until the small hours of the morning" and that "[t]he former president was caught on video dancing, maskless." The DailyMail.com ran dozens of photos from the event, most of them showing the guests unmasked.

"It's hypocrisy at its finest and shows they don't believe what they are saying [about COVID-19]," Republican consultant Ryan James Girdusky told The New York

Mr. Obama has done phenomenally well financially for a onetime community organizer, and it would be no one's business how lavishly he celebrated his 60th birthday were it not for his and his party's coronavirus finger-wagging.

But their flagrant nose-thumbing contributes to understandable resentment and public resistance to efforts to reimpose widespread masking and other COVID-19 restrictions against the delta variant.

It seems that, for Democrats, gaslighting has become the new leading-by-example.

BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVES/J. Ligon Duncan III

Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand

Please turn in your Bible to Matthew 4:12-17. Thus far in the Gospel of Matthew, we have read about the genealogy of our Savior and his identification as the Messiah whom God had promised to send to His people. We have also seen the Magi coming from afar to worship Jesus as the Son of God. Furthermore, we have seen the Father put His verbal word of blessing on Jesus' ministry, and the Lord Jesus in the baptism itself accept the commission publicly that He would be the sin-bearer for His people. Last week, we saw our Lord confront Satan and defeat him in the wilderness. And this week, we read about the circumstances and the content of Jesus' teaching ministry. Specifically, there are three things to notice in this passage. First, we learn about the timing of Jesus' ministry. Secondly, we learn about the place of His ministry. Thirdly and finally, we learn about the message of Jesus' ministry. I. The Timing of Jesus'

Ministry. In verse 12, Matthew says, "Now when Jesus heard that John had been taken into custody, He withdrew into Galilee." The occasion for Jesus' public ministry was the imprisonment of John the Baptist, his beloved cousin, the one whom God had sent to prepare the way before Him had been captured and imprisoned by Herod. And upon hearing about John's imprisonment, Jesus moves His ministry into Galilee. John's ministry has ended. He will spend the rest of his days imprisoned and then will give his life for the sake of the Gospel. And so Jesus goes into the wilderness to build upon the ministry that John had established there. What a compliment to John, that our Lord Jesus could go confidently into Galilee, knowing the John had done precisely what God had called Him to do from the foundations of the world which was to prepare the way of the Lord.

There are at least two things that we learn from the timing of Jesus' ministry. First, we learn that the Lord will build His church. What if we had been benefiting from that glorious ministry of John and suddenly the greatest preacher to ever preach in Galilee is snatched from our midst and thrown into prison. Surely we would have shaken our heads and said, "Lord what are you doing?" And yet, we see that Take John the Baptist from the people of God, and the Father sends His Son into Galilee. The church is not built on men, however talented. The church is built on the Rock and upon His unassailable truth. Secondly, we learn from the timing of our Lord's ministry that there is an appointed time in God's plan for everything in life. God knew precisely when He wanted to send His Son into the wilderness of Galilee. He had planned it from the foundations of the world. And so we must never forget that there is an appointed time in God's plan for everything in

II. The Place of Jesus' Ministry.

In verses 12-15, we read that Jesus settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali which is called "the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles." This area covers the whole northern region around the sea of Galilee. And Matthew tells us that Jesus ministers here in fulfillment of prophecy. Seven hundred years before, Isaiah had prophesied that the people of Zebulun and Naphtali who had endured not one, but two captivities would find liberation. Thus, Matthew says that the One who is the light, the One who is the liberator has come. Jesus began preaching the Gospel in Galilee of the Gentiles. He had come to a place that was religiously and morally darkened even in the days of old. In 2 Kings 17:33, the Samaritans were described as those that feared the Lord and yet they served their own gods. However, it is in Galilee of the Gentiles where our Lord's preaching ministry begins.

There are also two truths that we learn from the place of Jesus' ministry. First, we learn that God's grace is manifested in the most unlikely of places. If we had been planning where Jesus would do His ministry for its most strategic impact in Israel, surely we would have said, "Lord go to Jerusalem. That is the center of government. That is the center of power. Jerusalem is where people with money, influence, and education live. Go there and do Your ministry." Yet God does not send Jesus to the aristocracy of Jerusalem. God sends Jesus to the despised and the sorely afflicted masses of Galilee. God's grace is mani-the Lord will build His church. fested in the most unlikely places and before people who we may think of as the least worthy to receive it. Secondly, we learn that God's plan encompasses not only every timing in life, but every detail of life. Even the location where Jesus will minister is within the plan of God. It had been set down by the prophets hundreds of years before. And so we must never doubt that the details of our lives are in the hand of God.

III. The Message of Jesus' Ministry.

In verse 17, we read that Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." There are three things to observe about Jesus' message of repentance. First, it is important to notice that it is precisely the same message that John the Baptist preached. And by preaching that same message, the Lord Jesus teaches us that the Gospel is the same in the Old Testament as it is in the New Testament. Secondly, we learn that Jesus builds on John's ministry in such a way that He will reach regions with John's message that John had never reached. Thirdly, we see that when Jesus, the Messiah, preaches the message of repentance that it lends all the more urgency to the fact that the kingdom of heaven is at hand. And Jesus' message to the Galileans is His message to us. Jesus, the One who gave Himself for sinners, preaches repentance. It is the teaching of our Lord and Savior. What is repentance? Augustus Strong once said, "man truly repents only when he learns that his sin has made him unable to repent without the renewing grace of God." Only the person who is repentant is simultaneously able to say, "I am the problem, but God is merciful." The repentant person, by the grace of God, has come to see that God is a loving God who forgives at the cost of His Son. And so the repentant person, not knowing what to do, casts himself at the mercy of the Lord because he sees that it is God who will receive even a sinner. Friends, we serve a merciful God. Will you go to God today in repentance?

By STAFF REPORTS news@onlinemadison.com

Mississippi Book Festival onrganizers announced Wednesday that they have cancelled the festival's in-person event scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 21. "We are disappointed to have come so close to the finish line, but growing concern and cancellations from many of the authors and panelists scheduled to attend has led our Board of Directors to make the hard decision and forgo the in-person event," Holly Lange, the Festival's executive director, said in a press release. "While we could have continued to wait, the trend lines were moving against us, so we all thought it best to give everyone enough notice so that schedules and travel plans could be changed."

Lange said that even though the in-person event was cancelled, the Festival plans to move as many of the author panels and conversations as they can to virtual presentations in the coming months.

Getting the Message/Rev. Chris Shelton

The cost of following Christ

Antioch is a city that should be etched in the minds and hearts of Christians. It was a major city in northern Syria. Here the first majority Gentile church was planted, and Antioch became the springboard for missions throughout the Roman Empire. And it was here believers were first called Christians (Acts 11:26). Luke tells us how the church there got started.

Christians who fled persecution in Jerusalem settled in Antioch. They didn't just hide away; they began to tell people about Christ. At first it was only to the Jews in Antioch, but then some Christians with roots from Cyprus and Cyrene began speaking to Greeks. They preached the Lord Jesus (verse 20).

To preach the Lord Jesus meant they spoke of his person and works. That he was the Son of God, did mighty works because God was with him, was crucified by men according to the purpose of God to be an atoning sacrifice for sin, was raised from the dead, and will be the judge of all men. He calls on men without distinction to believe and turn to him for the remission of their sins.

We see that a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord (verse 21). The church in Jerusalem heard the news and sent Barnabas (a blessed choice) to minister to the young and growing church. When he arrived, he rejoiced at the grace of God and began to exhort them to remain faithful (verse 21). The church continued to grow, so Barnabas traveled to Tarsus to solicit the help of Saul (Paul), and together they taught the saints at Antioch for the next year (verse 26).

We learn here how great grace is to "believe and turn to the Lord." It means leaving death for life, darkness for light, guilt for forgiveness. And it means an eternal inheritance in the kingdom of God. By faith you become a child of God forever. These Greeks turned away from idolatry, immorality, Caesar, and other things they had known all their days to the Lord Jesus. That took faith.

You should make sure you have believed and turned to the Lord. It is pride to refuse a command of the Lord to come to him and live. Faith is obedience, listening to and heeding the word of the Lord. If you have heard the gospel, you have been summoned by him. Christ came from heaven to heal sinners. He is equal to the need you have. Be like the people in Antioch and lay hold of Christ.

We also see that Barnabas exhorted the Christians to stay faithful with steadfast purpose. He knew they were being tested and would be tested further. Satan loathes seeing people turn to Christ, and the world under his power is against the truth of God.

Coming to Christ does not mean an easy journey through this world. Rather, the Lord tells his people that it is through many tribulations we enter the kingdom of God, and that if the world hated him, do not be surprised that it hates you. The saints in Antioch would have to count the cost of following Christ as we all do.

Having steadfast purpose is connected to being pure in heart. In other words, to put away a divided heart, place your hand on the plow and not look away. Keep your eyes on the Lord, seek to do his will and remember your name is written in heaven.

Samuel Rutherford wrote, "How soon a few years will pass and this life's lease be expired. O happy soul forever! Who can rightly compare this life with its vanity and the lasting life to come with its weight of glory? Do not let the Lord's dealings seem harsh, rough, or unfatherly because they are unpleasant. When his blessed will blows across your desires, it is best to strike sail in humility, and deny yourself so you have no will of your own. Give yourself as a gift to God to make use of for his will. Every day make more and more of Christ, and test your growth in the grace of God.'

Luke tells us in verses 27 that Agabus the prophet foretold of a famine that would be hard on the people in Judea. So the saints in Antioch decided to take up an offering to send relief to the Christians there. Generosity is fruit of the Christian faith.

The motive that Paul gives to the church in Corinth to give generously is sufficient: "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich."

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE PROPOSED BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX LEVIES FOR THE UPCOMING FISCAL YEAR FOR THE CITY OF RIDGELAND, MISSISSIPPI

The City of Ridgeland will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for Fiscal Year 2022 on August 17, 2021 at 6 o'clock pm at City Hall.

The City of Ridgeland is now operating projected total budget revenue of $42,597,096. Twenty one percent (21%) or $9,161,094 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For the next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $42,604,191. Of that amount, twenty two percent (22%) or $9,404,056 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

The decision to not increase the ad valorem tax millage rate for the fiscal year 2022 above the current fiscal year's ad valorem tax millage rate means you will not pay more in ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental real property, unless the assessed value of your property has increased for the fiscal year 2022.

Any citizen of the City of Ridgeland is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed budget and tax levies for fiscal year 2022 and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken.

Morgan back on bike after accident

By CAREY MILLER
Health and Research News Service

When Stephen "Step" Morgan wrecked his bike at the Ridgeland Trails, he knew he was hurt. But he had no idea his life was forever changed.

"At the time of my crash, I was sitting there waiting for help, thinking I was going to have to preach from a stool in a cast that Sunday," said Morgan, who is director of admissions at Reformed Theological Seminary in Jackson and preaches regularly at area Presbyterian churches. "I had no idea that my life was in danger."

And he certainly had no idea that he'd soon have his left leg amputated below the knee and be learning to walk again using a prosthesis at Methodist Orthotics & Prosthetics in Flowood. Or that with continued rehab at Methodist Outpatient Therapy at the same facility, he would be back riding on those trails less than five months after his injury.

"They told me I would be able to do anything I wanted to do with time," Morgan said. "My experience with Methodist was just fantastic."

The Ridgeland resident says he was an experienced mountain bike rider when his accident occurred on Oct. 23. "I had been riding out there two to four times a week, and had gotten very familiar with the trails," he said.

He had been working on mastering one of the trails' newer obstacles.

"They're wooden platforms called drops," Morgan said. "One was about a foot and a half tall, and the other was about three feet tall. You ride off them and you land on sloping ground, so the impact is minimal and very smooth. I wanted to work my way up to the bigger drop, so I had ridden the smaller one maybe 150 times before."

maybe 150 times before."

But on this day, as he was coming off that same drop, his left riding shoe came unclipped from his pedal and he wrecked. He landed left leg first, which shattered his tibia and punctured his popliteal artery.

"I yelled for help and a couple of riders were by my side within a minute or so," Morgan said. "But I was about a quartermile up the hill from the trailhead, so it took EMS a while to arrive. Then, we had to wait for the fire department to get an ATV up there to get me out. So it took about an hour between my crash and when they loaded me in the back of the ambulance."

Because of the damage to his artery, Morgan lost a large amount of blood before he could make it to the ER at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Doctors did what they could to try and save his leg with surgery, but over the following days he had four more surgeries as his leg began to deteriorate. Ultimately though, the muscle tissue in his leg began dying due to the blood loss, and it was necessary to amputate.

"I knew I had faith, and that meant God was at work, and that He would shepherd me through this," Morgan said. "The idea of an amputation was of course not something that we welcomed, but we trusted that God would take care of me."

Morgan's wife, Jessica, shared his story via social media and asked for people to pray for him. When she shared the latest news, Morgan's spirits were lifted by people from his greater church community that contacted him to share their experiences of life after amputation.

"Lots of people reached out to assure me that there were many amputees right here in our area that have very active lives," he said. "I was not very familiar with prosthetics or what life was like for amputees."

Morgan's sixth surgery was the amputation, exactly a week after his accident. In all, Morgan was in the hospital for 15 days, and underwent four more surgeries to fight off infection at the amputation site.

"It was quite an experience, but I had a great care team at the hospital there at UMMC," Morgan said.

When he was discharged, Morgan was given the choice of going to inpatient rehab at Methodist Rehabilitation Center, or going home first, then going to outpatient therapy later.

oing to outpatient therapy later. "At the time, I didn't understand the benefits of inpatient vs. outpatient rehab," Morgan said. "I thought, 'I want to see my kids, of course I want to go home!"

Step Morgan catches some air while riding his mountain bike on the Ridgeland Trails, not far from where the wreck happened that led to his left leg being amputated.

Morgan is the father of five, and missed his wife and their children Rachel Katharine, 19, Samuel, 17, Sophie, 14, Noah, 11, and Eli, 8. But he acknowledges that delaying rehab at Methodist Outpatient Therapy in Flowood until the week of Thanksgiving may have set him back.

"When I first started physical therapy, I could only bend my left knee about 33 degrees," Morgan said. "To be able to use a prosthesis effectively, I needed to be able to bend it to 90 degrees."

So physical therapist Karen Klein was tasked with helping him regain that range of motion so he could eventually be fitted with a prosthesis.

"From the beginning, he could barely bend his knee," Klein said. "It was stuck. We also had to protect his fracture so it could heal. It wasn't a matter of just waiting for his incision to heal like most amputees. His leg was very swollen at first. So we focused on decreasing the swelling using the tools we had, like manual therapy and the Hivamat, to gain range of motion. His scar tissue was severe, too, because he had so much trauma."

The Hivamat is a therapeutic device that utilizes electrostatic waves to create a kneading effect deep within damaged tissues, rapidly relaxing muscles, alleviating pain and reducing swelling. It also helps restore flexibility and blood supply to the affected area.

"Early therapy intervention was of utmost importance for Step to be able to use a prosthesis," Klein said. "Once his swelling and scar tissue were manageable, we saw gradual then steady improvements. And he was so compliant and did everything I asked of him. I remember how excited he was the day we finally got his kneecap to dislodge, and we doubled his knee flexion from like 30 to 60 degrees. But that still wasn't enough. So we worked through it to get to 90 degrees, and he was soon able to get his prosthesis."

Certified prosthetist Taylor Hankins worked with Morgan to build a prosthesis that fit his needs.

"When he came to us, I knew his story, because I mountain bike at the same place where he was injured," Hankins said. "I was really hoping to get to work with him. I knew he would want to get back to being active, whether it was mountain biking or anything else. I wanted to talk with him about options, about how he was not limited by his amputation and could be just as active as he was before."

Hankins came up with some initial solutions that would accommodate Morgan's limited range of motion like an articulating ankle that allowed his foot and toe to clear the ground when stepping.

"That encouraged his knee flexion, and with physical therapy it helped increase his range," Hankins said. "Then, as he got more and more range, we could change the foot out with something that had a higher spring efficiency to give him some energy back and do even better in therapy."

"Taylor was just fantastic," Morgan said. "The process was just super smooth in terms of the coordination between physical therapy and them building a prosthesis."

Klein said that having O&P next door allows for greater teamwork.

"Every time Step was in the therapy, Taylor was willing to come over and adjust things if needed," she said. "With every gain Step made in therapy, it changed the way it affected his prosthesis. So I think he hugely benefited from us being a one-stop-shop."

But even though he now had a working prosthesis, Morgan was limited to only wearing it two hours a day at first.

"What was left of my tibia was still healing," Morgan said. "We had to be very careful not to reinjure my leg. Karen had to be very strategic about the exercises she chose for me."

"Step was the kind of guy to overdo it," Klein said. "I was encouraging him to follow the doctor's orders. He was wanting to go above and beyond. So I was leaning on the side of caution, and we had to find a happy medium. We were very creative finding effective but safe strengthening exercises and techniques."

As Morgan made more gains in therapy, and as his leg continued to heal, he gradually became a skilled prosthetic user.

"After my surgeon cleared me to be full weight-bearing on my leg, we just really took off," Morgan said.

Soon Klein had Morgan going up and downstairs, walking sideways and doing other ing sideways and doing other high-level activities. "He could even lightly jog within that first month, which is pretty phenomenal," Hankins within that first month, which is pretty phenomenal," Hankins said. "It takes some time to get used to a prosthesis. But he was gaining balance, strength and stamina quickly."

By April Morgan had fin

By April, Morgan had finished his physical therapy and Hankins began to build him a final prosthesis.

"We tried a few things that worked and some that didn't," Hankins said. "We settled on an energy-storing, carbon-fiber foot component. On top of that is a shock rotation and torsion adapter that absorbs some of the impact from walking, but mostly the shock of higher impact activities like running and sports. It works really well for something like mountain biking."

Morgan says he's been pleased with the versatility the prosthesis allows.

"I can play with my kids in the yard, I can even run on it a little," Morgan said. "And I'm riding my mountain bike again with this leg."

Morgan says he's been back to the trails several times. And he's even done the drop that changed his life.

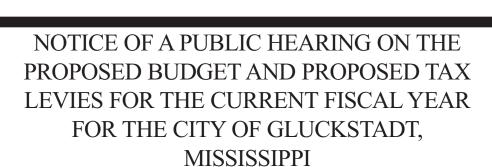

"I knew from the outset that I wanted to ride again, for multiple reasons," Morgan said. "For one, it brings me so much joy. I love mountain biking. And two, that place and my fellow riders there had become very special to me. So I didn't want to lose that community. And then three, I didn't want it to beat me. I wanted to get back on the bike and not be stopped by my injury."

Morgan has also returned to his job at Reformed Theological Seminary and traveling regularly to recruit students. He was a student himself while working there and graduated in May 2020. He says he had even been looking for a job.

"My long-term desire is to be a pastor, and we were actually in the process of finding me a ministry when my accident happened, so we put that on hold," Morgan said. "I would love to be a minister, and I think that's still the road that I'm on. I anticipate that I will eventually find a call that's a good fit for me and my family."

After all he's been through, Morgan feels like the experience has strengthened his faith and his life's calling.

"It's given me first-hand experience of God's faithfulness and caring for us even through difficult, unwanted circumstances and suffering," Morgan said. "The reality is everyone suffers, and we all look for something to sustain us through that suffering and provide comfort. So it's provided me new opportunities for me to share the hope that is offered to us in the gospel of Jesus Christ."

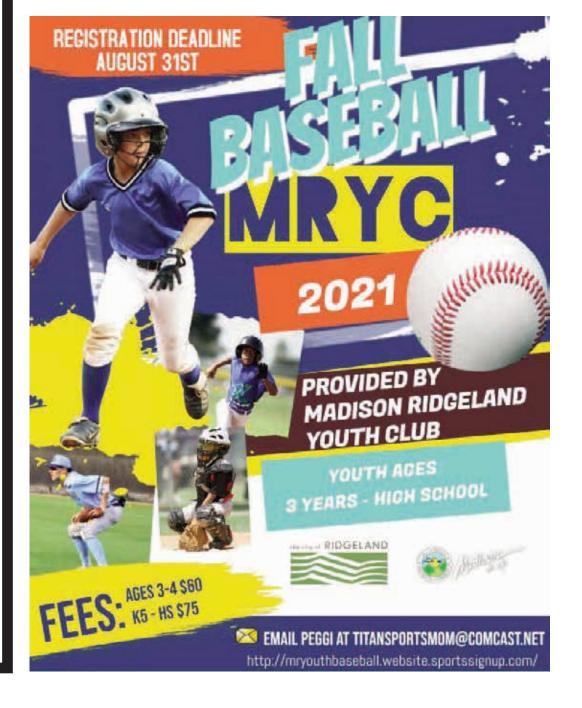

The City of Gluckstadt will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for fiscal year 2020-2021 at 6 p.m. on Aug. 26, 2021, at Germantown High School, in the Cafetorium, 409 Calhoun Station Pkwy, Gluckstadt, MS 39110.

The City of Gluckstadt is now operating with no budget because of its recent incorporation, first legally effective June 6, 2021. For the current fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $360,500.00, zero percent (0%) or $0.00 of which is obtained through ad valorem taxes.

The decision not to impose the ad valorem tax millage rate for fiscal year 2020-21 means for the current fiscal year, you will pay no ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental real property, even if the assessed value of your property has increased for fiscal year 2020-21.

Any citizen of the City of Gluckstadt is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed budget and tax levies for fiscal year 2020-2021 and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken. # Hutton pleads to prostitution charge

The Madison man accused of promoting prostitution while he was the Executive Director of the Mississippi Fair Commission pleaded guilty in Madison County Circuit Court on Monday.

Circuit Judge Dewey Arthur sentenced Steve Hutton to 10 years in prison, with 7 years suspended. He was ordered to serve two years in an intensive supervision program and will spend one year in custody of the Mississippi Department of Corrections.

Hutton was arrested in April 2020 on one charge of promoting prostitution. The Madison Police Department, working in conjunction with the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation, made the arrest.

State law defines promoting prostitution as doing anything that facilitates the solicitation of sex. More specifically, it describes the perpetrator knowingly or intentionally enticing, compelling, including, persuading or encouraging another person to become a prostitute, soliciting or offering to solicit money for sex with someone else or transporting sex workers.

Hutton held several prominent jobs around Jackson in the past, including serving as Tournament Director for Jackson's PGA Tour event, which was held in Madison at the time.

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE PROPOSED BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX LEVIES FOR THE UPCOMING FISCAL YEAR FOR MADISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

The Madison County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for fiscal year 2022 on September 7, 2021, 9:00 a.m. in the Board Room of the Chancery/Administrative Office Complex, 125 West North Street, Canton, Mississippi.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors, exclusive of the Madison County School District, is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $136,269,373.77. 41.1 percent or $56,023,758.53 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $130,326,574.50. Of that amount, 43.7 percent or $56,975,518.33 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors, inclusive of the Madison County School District, is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $326,773,503.88. 42.3 percent or $138,108,606.53 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $324,033,330.25. Of that amount, 41.9 percent or $135,635,177.33 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

For next fiscal year, the Madison County Board of Supervisors plans to not increase your ad valorem tax millage rate, for property outside of the North Madison County Fire Protection District.

For properties affected by the newly created North Madison County Fire Protection District, the Madison County Board of Supervisors plans to increase your ad valorem tax millage rate by 8.0 mills, a total increase of $200,000.00 in additional ad valorem tax collections. This increase means that you will pay more in ad valorem taxes on your real property. This millage will be specifically used to contract for fire protection services and to cover the increased costs of fire protection in rural and lower density areas in north Madison County.

A millage rate of 37.59 mills will produce the same amount of revenue from ad valorem taxes as was collected in the 2021 fiscal year. The millage rate for the 2021 fiscal year was 38.13.

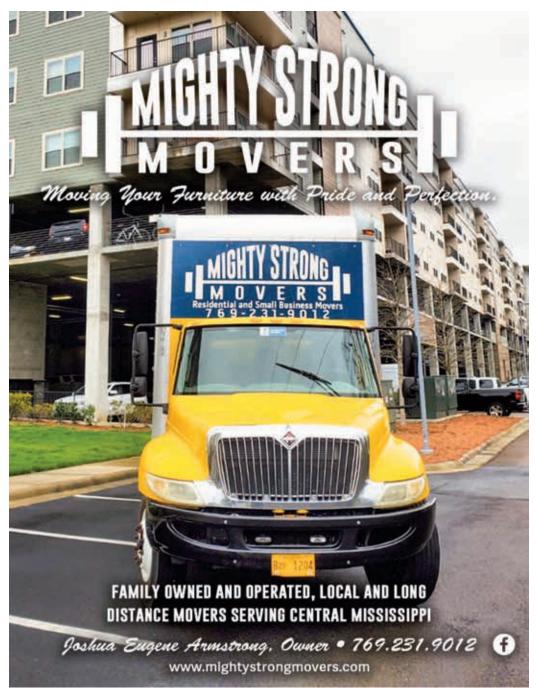

The decision to not increase the ad valorem tax millage rate for fiscal year 2022 above the current fiscal year's ad valorem tax millage rate means you will not pay more in ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental property outside of the North Madison County Fire Protection District, unless the assessed value of your property has increased for fiscal year 2022.

Any citizen of Madison County, Mississippi is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed budget and tax levies for fiscal year 2022 and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken.

Witness the signature of said Board of Supervisors, this the 2nd day of August 2021.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors /s/Karl M. Banks, District 4 Board President
