SOFT START LAST WEEK

Madison schools now requiring masks

By SCOTT HAWKINS

Madison Central High School went to distance learning Wednesday — not due to COVID — instead because of a power outage. At the same time, the phones and internet were down at Madison Middle, Madison Station, East Flora, Mannsdale Upper and Mannsdale Lower. These schools did have power half of the students attending and classes resumed as usual.

Madison Schools District spokesperson Gene Wright said the power outage was an Entergy issue and she anticipated the power would be restored later in the day.

"Hopefully, it will just be a blip on the radar," Wright said Wednesday morning.

Schools began last week with a "soft start" with only classes each day Aug. 10-12 under a mask-optional COVID-19 Level 2 protocol and the first full day being Friday, Aug. 13.

Before the first full day of school last Friday, however, Madison County Schools instituted COVID-19 Level 3 requiring people to wear masks on campuses, school officials announced in an Aug.

11 letter to parents.

"Beginning the school year with a soft start, with only half our student population on each campus each day, has mitigated the impact of COVID-19 in our schools so far," said Super-intendent Charlotte Seals in the Wednesday, Aug. 11, letter to parents. "With the return of all students to campus together at the end of this week and based on projections of state

By SCOTT HAWKINS scott@onlinemadison.com

The Board of Supervisors acknowledged Madison County's proposed $123 million Fiscal Year 2022 budget that includes $10.3 million in federal COVID-19 CARES Act relief funds.

"The upcoming budget is expected to be about $8 million lower than the current budget," said Heath Hall, spokesman for Madison County. "In addition, there is no expectation of a millage increase."

The current fiscal year budget is $132 million which had increased from $86 million the year before.

Supervisors are required by state law to acknowledge receipt of the proposed Fiscal Year budget as part of the budgeting process.

A public hearing will be held at the board's next meeting at 9 a.m. Sept. 7.

Included in the proposed fiscal year budget are $6 million in road funds and $13 million in debt service.

In other matters at Monday's meeting, supervisors voted to:

• Authorize the county attorney to research and write a resolution highlighting the 100th Birthday of Ida Harris. The Board also authorized the board president to sign the resolution

Southern Ag Credit building new HQ in Ridgeland

RIDGELAND - An outdoor space is a key feature of the newly approved proposed Southern Ag Credit building off the I-55 here.

Community Development Director Alan Hart presented plans for the new Southern Ag Credit headquarters building at a recent meeting of the Ridgeland Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

"It has a nice outdoor space and looks great from the interstate," Hart said.

The company will be moving from its current location at 402 West Parkway Place to a new location just north of the 300 Concourse Building along the I-55 Frontage Road. Hart said it was near the Wells Marble & Hurst Building.

At a recent evening work session, Mayor Gene McGee said the building "looks great" and asked that it be kept on the consent agenda for approval. The consent agenda passed unanimously, 7-0, during the Aug. 3 regularly scheduled city board meeting.

CEO Phillip Morgan said they were "super excited" about the new building. He said that though the company is about 105 years old, tracing their founding back to 1916 when the Federal Land Bank System was created by legislation signed by President Woodrow Wilson, they have not seen growth in their history like they have seen since they moved to Ridgeland in 2010 with 11 employees.

Morgan said that today they have more than seven locations throughout Mississippi and two

Afghanistan and our border

The coronavirus isn't the only pathogen on the loose. Weakness is also contagious, and President Biden has caught it. Engrossed with the current pandemic, he has fled from the fight to defeat Islamic extremists in Afghanistan. The reappearance of the black flag of terrorism, combined with the president's "progressive" policy of easy immigration, has set the conditions for America's enemies to revive their assault on our homeland. The nation's borders must be secured. Now.

Afghanistan has fallen, notwithstanding Mr. Biden's puerile efforts to reassure Americans of its unlikelihood. Since he announced in July that he would withdraw U.S. troops from the mountainous Asian wasteland by Sept. 11, the religious extremists of the Taliban emerged from the shadows, reclaimed provincial cities, then Sunday rode unchallenged into the capital, Kabul. Flattened beneath their wheels is Mr. Biden's credibility.

The U.S. military brass and diplomats who didn't see this coming should have: Iraqi Army units similarly trained and armed by the U.S. capitulated in the face of a surging ISIS in 2014, refusing to fight their co-religionists without back-up from Americans.

Before its pullout from Afghanistan, the U.S. military presence was deemed mission-critical. "What we're here to do is prevent al Qaeda and ISIS from reconstituting in the ungoverned spaces, generally in eastern Afghanistan, and be able to plot attacks against our homeland," U.S. Marine Gen. Frank McKenzie, head of U.S. Central Command, told NBC News in July. "That threat is still here today."

Their shared reverence for Islamic fundamentalism meant the Taliban would never renounce al Qaeda and force its armed insurgency out of the safe havens from which it launched its attacks on American targets. Now with the Taliban's return to power, al Qaeda's fortunes are secure. Accordingly, the threat that Gen. McKenzie eyed is free to intensify, potentially putting Americans in the same crosshairs that menaced them before the historic attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.

It must be acknowledged that Americans have clearly favored withdrawal. A July poll conducted for the Chicago Council found 70 percent of respondents favoring a U.S. military exit by the 20th anniversary of the attacks, with 29 percent disagreeing. Few could have foreseen, though, how rapidly the nation's enemies were galvanized to action by the images of a frail U.S. president stumbling over his stairs and words.

With the collapse of Afghanistan comes a harsh, new national-security reality. Mr. Biden's effective recasting of the U.S. Border Patrol's mission from preventing the entry of uninvited people to facilitating their access has allowed hundreds of thousands of illegal immigrants from more than 100 nations – a significant percentage sick with COVID-19 — to disperse across the continent. It is naïve to expect evildoers to wait their turn in a Customs line.

Attempting to safeguard the nation by fighting enemies overseas while leaving the U.S. border exposed has always been an invitation to terror. Mr. Biden's weak open-borders policy must end.

Diversity China fears

The first returns from the delayed census of 2020 are in, and they have made for celebratory headlines in the mainstream media.

Big takeaway: Between 2010 and 2021, the white American population declined in real and relative terms, with more deaths than live births, as the white share of the U.S. population fell from 63% to under 58%.

As The Washington Post reported, between 1990 and Black Americans held at roughly 12% of the population. Hispanics doubled their share from 9% to almost 19%, and Asians went from less than 3% to more than 6%.

And white Americans? In those three decades, whites fell from three-fourths of the U.S. population to less than three-fifths.

Bottom line: Racially and ethnically, we are becoming an ever more diverse nation, which is causing general rejoicing among those who hold it as an article of faith that, "Our diversity is our strength."

But is that cliche true? Where is the scientific, historical or empirical evidence for the proposition that the greater the religious, racial, tribal and ethnic diversity of a nation, the stronger it becomes?

To put it mildly, this is not a universally held belief.

Our great rival China, for example, obviously fears such diversity.

The ideology of China is communism, and rival belief systems such as Christianity and the Falun Gong are repressed, as are the democrats of Hong Kong. Conformity, not diversity, is the desired condition.

As for racial and ethnic diversity, Tibetans and Uyghurs are subjected to methods of forced assimilation that are regarded, and rightly so, as crimes against humanity and cultural and ethnic genocide.

But while China's methods of suppressing diversity are often criminal, Beijing's fears are not unjustified.

In Xinjiang, there are Uyghurs who seek to secede and establish a new nation of How have our deepening racial and ethnic divisions strengthened us?

East Turkestan. Also, China saw up close what ethnic and tribal diversity did to its neighbor the Soviet Union.

Three decades ago, the USSR splintered along ethnic-national lines into 15 nations. Since then, Moscow has fought two wars to keep Chechnya from breaking free, battled Georgia to prevent its re-annexation of the ethnic enclaves of Abkhazia and South Ossetia, and assisted a Russified minority in the Donbas in its drive to secede from Ukraine.

Last year, Azerbaijan, a former Soviet republic, attacked and amputated the former Soviet republic of Armenia.

In Africa, tribal diversity has pulled Ethiopia apart again, with the Eritreans having seceded in 1993, and Tigray forces seeking to secede now.

Among the more diverse nations in the Middle East is Lebanon. Arab and Druze, Christian and Muslim, Sunni and Shia — its diversity has proven a factor in its disintegration and descent toward the status of a failed state.

But back to the USA. Is America a stronger, better, more united nation and people than we were under Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy, when 90% of the U.S. population was of European descent, almost all spoke English, and African Americans were the largest and indeed virtually the only major minority?

How have our deepening racial and ethnic divisions strengthened us?

Consider the causes and issues that have been tearing us apart for the last year: George Floyd, Black Lives Matter, Defund the Police, Portland, critical race theory, white privilege, systemic racism, "The 1619 Project," Robert E. Lee statues, voter suppression, Jim Crow 2.0, anti-Asian hate crimes.

Crossing our southern border today, in an invasion almost unresisted by the Biden administration, are migrants coming not only from Latin America but from Africa, the Middle East and Asia.

Undeniably, these migrants, entering illegally in July at the rate of 220,000 that month, add to our racial and ethnic diversity.

But do their numbers and presence here add to our strength? Does their presence help make us a more perfect union?

The more diverse we have become, it seems, the less united we have become, even about public manifestations of patriotism — the American flag, the national anthem, the pledge of alliance. Nor do our history, holidays and heroes unite us as once they did.

But if 2 million migrants from all over the world, the anticipated number in President Joe Biden's first year, are good for America, why not open the floodgates and bring in still more?

Is Europe made stronger and better as it is made more diverse from the migration from Africa and the Arab and Islamic world from across the Med?

From the visceral recoil of Europe's peoples, the opposite seems true.

Greece, Italy and Spain use whatever means they can devise to prevent the peoples of the global South from coming northward into Europe.

Indeed, it is hard to find a country where religious, racial and ethnic diversity contribute more to its strength and unity than they do to the forces of division, separation and secession. Which is one reason why the U.N. General Assembly that began with 51 nations now has 193.

Racial, ethnic, tribal, ideological and cultural diversity are history's wedges of national division, separation and secession, as we are discovering.

The Fat Cat Report

Who is the highest-paid public official in Mississippi? The Governor, you might imagine? No. The Lieutenant Governor or House Speaker? Not even close.

Despite being elected to the highest state-wide offices, none of these senior officials rank among the top paid public officials in our state.

Instead the accolade of highest-paid official in Mississippi goes to the State Superintendent for Public Education on a cool $300,000 a year. That eye-watering salary makes the State Superintendent not only the most highly paid official in Mississippi but one of the most highly paid State Superintendents for Education in the country – despite presiding over some of the worst education outcomes in America.

Published last week, the Mississippi Fat Cat Report (https://mspolicy.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/Fat-Cat-Report-2021-Final.pdf) shows that despite being one of the poorest states in America, we manage to have some of the highest-paid public officials in the country.

What is so striking about our report is the extent to which it is dominated by education bureaucrats, with almost half (24) of the top fifty highest salaries paid to School Board District Superintendents. The average salary for a School Board Superintendent on our list was $175,000 a year - more even than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court ($174,000).

Our report suggests there needs to be more effective democratic oversight of public officials' pay.

To be clear, not everyone that features on our list is a fat cat. Plenty of officials do demanding jobs that benefit the public. But what our report does suggest is that merely throwing public money at officials does not mean they are worth it. Nor does it necessarily make for better public services.

Take, for example, the School Superintendent for Madison County. They might happen to be the fifth highest paid School Superintendent in the state, but they run a school district with over 13,000 students, and they presided over an A rated school system. Looked at that way, the cost of the Madison School Superintendent turned out to be a mere $14 per student per year.

Moms and dads in Madison might have every reason to believe that they get good value for money, but I am less confident the same can be said elsewhere.

The School Superintendent of Corinth district was paid $210,000 despite running a B rated district with a merely 2,700 students. F-rated Holmes Country School District, with a little over 3,000 students, managed to find $170,000 to pay their Superintendent, far more than some A rated School Districts paid their Superintendents.

For as long as anyone can remember, we have been told that poor education outcomes in certain parts of Mississippi were a consequence of underfunding. Our report demonstrates that this is not true. The fundamental problem, which accounts for poor standards and soaring salaries, is a lack of public accountability.

In the run up to state elections politicians like to talk about tax cuts. After the votes are counted, we are often told the time just isn't right for them. So how come officials always seem to be able to find the money to pay senior salaries?

Our report suggests that there needs to be more effective democratic oversight of officials. Perhaps the state legislature should hold confirmation hearings to approve any state officials receiving salaries over and above what the Governor gets? Maybe parents should have the power to veto pay increases for school superintendents above a certain level?

Excessive pay for top public officials suggests that politics in Mississippi is run by a series of cozy cartels. Too many school districts seem to lack meaningful accountability. Too many state officials answer to other officials, rather than to the people that pay their salaries. This needs to change if taxpayers are going to get the public services they need.

Biden's man-made disasters

President Biden arrived in office with the Southern border secure and Afghanistan in a state of fragile equilibrium.

Eight months later, the border continues to be deluged with migrants overwhelming our capacity to properly house and process them, and we are evacuating our personnel from Hamid Karzai International Airport in Kabul overrun by desperate Afghans fleeing the Taliban.

The crisis at the border and the stunningly swift defeat in Afghanistan are entirely on Biden. He took sustainable situations and overturned them out of ideological fixity and fantastical wishful thinking.

The outcomes were utterly predictable. Indeed, anyone who knew anything about the border or Afghanistan warned what would happen.

The debacles haven't been the product of forces beyond Biden's control; events didn't take a hand, he did. These are man-made disasters.

Throw on top the crime wave in U.S. cities that is a product of the left's enthusiasm for fashionable anti-cop sentiments, and the picture is of a party that is unable to maintain order or rationally calculate the downside consequences of its rhetoric and policies.

One hallmark of the Biden approach has been laughably false assurances. He maintained at a press conference in March that there was nothing unusual going on at the border, when the historic surge had already begun. Only last month, he confidently predicted that there'd be no dramatic rooftop evacuations from Kabul, when a rapid collapse of the government was always a distinct possibility.

Then, there are the ineffectual warnings. Biden officials have repeatedly told migrants to stop coming to the U.S. border, when they have every incentive to continue to do so, and his representatives tsk-tsked the Taliban about sweeping to power by force — something that they have fought to do for 20 years — because it would supposedly harm the group's international image.

And, finally, the rank blame-shifting. Biden's team has outlandishly tried to argue that President Donald Trump some-how created the conditions for the border spinning out of control, when the truth is that Trump, after false starts, figured out how to get a handle on it. Biden points the finger at Trump, too, on Afghanistan.

Here he has more of a case

Trump, too, on Afghanistan.

Here, he has more of a case

the so-called peace deal that

Trump cut with the Taliban was a travesty that undercut the Afghan government. But nothing forced Biden, who has happily reversed field on most Trump policies, to abide by an agreement that the Taliban violated from the outset or to execute a withdrawal that kneecapped the Afghan army in the midst of fighting season and a gathering Taliban offensive.

He was the one whose exit denied the Afghan army the U.S. air support and logistics it had always depended on, who left without securing a nearby base in the region, who didn't care enough about Afghan allies who had risked their lives for us to ensure that they could get out of the country, who sent a message of abandonment that was a blow to Afghan morale from the top all the way down.

It's a particularly galling Biden rhetorical move to use the catastrophic failure of the Afghan forces that he helped bring about to insist that his decision to leave was the only responsible one. He's gone from claiming we could safely leave because the Afghan security forces would do just fine on their own, to arguing we had no choice but to get out because they couldn't manage without

Both at the border and in Afghanistan, Biden merely had to keep in place what he inherited to sustain success or at least avoid disaster. On the border, Trump's pandemic-era controls and his agreements with Mexico and Central American countries were sensible and tested. Afghanistan was more difficult, but with some determination and finesse, Biden could have maintained the minimal U.S. commitment that had forestalled a Taliban takeover for

Instead, in both cases, he quite literally chose chaos.

Beverly Carnes Stephenson

Beverly Carnes Stephenson, age 91, of Flora, Mississippi, passed away on August 13, 2021 peacefully at home with her two daughters at her side. Mrs. Stephenson was born December 23, 1929 in Shelby, Mississippi to parents Homer and Addie Shamburger Carnes. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, John; and her sisters, Jean Carnes Rutherford of Andalusia, Alabama and Dorothy Carnes Stephenson of Jackson, Mississippi.

Beverly was born and raised in Shelby, Mississippi. She was the third in line of four sisters. After graduation from Shelby High School she attended Mississippi University for Women (known as MSCW then as they coined it "Mississippi's Sweetest Collection of Women") and enjoyed being a part of many social clubs on campus. The summer after MUW, one of her fondest memories was when she won the Lady of the Lake contest and went on to the Miss Mississippi Pageant enjoying all the trips and acquaintances it provided.

She then attended Milsaps College where she was awarded campus beauty, and she met the love of her life, John Blount Stephenson, of Flora, Mississippi. She then entered Ole Miss, where she graduated with a B. S. in elementary education. She was a member of Chi Omega sorority.

After graduation, John and Beverly were married. The Korean War broke out and John became a marine and they served as a military family until the end of the war.

After the war, Beverly became a first grade school teacher in Flora, Mississippi. Over many decades, Beverly taught and watched her first graders matriculate and mature into the leaders of our society. It was one of her greatest joys watching them become doctors, lawyers, engineers, nurses, farmers, carpenters, plumbers, electricians, bankers, business men, teachers, ministers, missionaries, coaches, social workers, and good citizens of our country. She remembered them all and loved them all.

Beverly had a deep passion for painting on canvas, sewing and horses. She especially enjoyed drawing silhouettes of the children in her neighborhood in Flora. She loved giving showers for newlyweds and babies to be born. She was a lifetime member and active volunteer at the Flora Baptist Church (FBC).

She is survived by her younger sister, Tommye

BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVES/J. Ligon Duncan III

Four disciples chosen

Please turn in your Bible to Matthew 4:18-21. We see Jesus call the first four disciples in this passage. He had known them for about a year; however, Jesus issues a special call to them in these verses. Now they were no longer to simply have concourse with Him as He made his way around the Sea of Galilee and in the city of Capernaum, but they were to leave their vocations and follow Him. They would occasionally fish from time to time from that point on, but only to sustain them in their main ministry that was the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. This call to the disciples, though unique it was, has direct relevance to our call as disciples. Specifically, there are three important things that we learn from this passage. First, we learn about the character of Jesus' disciples. Secondly, we learn about the call that Jesus gave to His disciples. Thirdly and finally, we learn about the commitment required by Jesus of these disciples.

I. The Character of Jesus'

In verses 18-21, we see the character of these men displayed in where they were, in who they were, and in what they were doing when they were called by Jesus. It is important to observe where Jesus called his first disciples. Jesus met these pairs of brothers in Galilee, not in Jerusalem, not in the court of Herod, and not in the schools of the rabbis and chief priests and Pharisees and scribes. These were simple men of Galilee going about their business, and they were the ones that Christ would call to be his first disciples. This reminds us that Christ sees not as man sees. It was not from fame or prominence, but from obscurity that they were called into

Christ's service. It is also important to notice who they were. They were fishermen. They were not educated men. However, that doesn't mean that they were unintelligent. They were not particularly learned men in the eyes of the world. They were men of limited means. They weren't necessarily poor, but they weren't wealthy either. They were in a vocation that enabled them to feed their families and to sustain themselves, but they worked weekto-week dependent on what the Lord would bring to them in their labors, and they certainly knew what it was to trust on the Lord for provision. to recall the transformation of these men by Christ in His service. Some of these men were impetuous, some were impatient, some were misguided, and some lacked courage. All feared to a certain extent, because at the day of the cross they fled. But after Christ's resurrection and ascension and the pouring out of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, these men were courageous for the sake of the Gospel. Christ, by His Word and Spirit, took ordinary men and He made them to be the foundation of the church. The Lord Jesus called men who had every reason to be humble in their estimation of their own resources, of their own capacities, of their own education, and of their own potential, and He crafted their character by His Word and Spirit. Christ's work on the character of these men reminds us that we minister out of character and not out of personality. Some people may think that we attract people to Christ through personality and not through steady Christian character. But when Christ sought to surround himself with the core of disciples upon which He would build His church, He surrounded himself with men to whose character He gave attention, because He knew that if they did not live what they preached, no one would believe them. This truth also reminds us of our own responsibility to give attention to our own character. It reminds us to regularly ask ourselves, "Do we live in accordance with that which we claim to believe?"

II. The Call of Jesus to His Disciples.

In verse 19, Jesus says, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Notice that His call to the disciples has two parts. Jesus first calls them to follow Him, and then He calls them to be fishers of men. In other words, they were called to both fellowship and to responsibility. They were first called to commune with Christ, because before we can become a fisher of men, we must be with Christ. One must become an emulator of tenderness and diligence. It has been well said that discipleship is more than getting to know what the teacher knows. Discipleship is getting to be what the teacher is, and before Christ equips and sends out His disciples to be man fishers, He equips them first with

Furthermore, it is important fellowship with Him, by their union with Him, by their attendance to His Word, and by their reliance on His grace, Jesus causes them to be like Jesus also calls His disciples to the task of drawing people to Himself. These men fish not for wealth, not for honor, not for fulfillment, not for status, and not for gain. They fish for souls. They desire to draw souls to Christ. These men were to be given to drawing men to Christ, not to themselves, but to the only One who could save them. My friends, before we can lead someone to the Master, we have to be with the Master ourselves. Our communion with Christ is an indispensable requisite for fulfilling our job of drawing men and women to Christ, for if Christ is not in us. our words about Christ will ring hollow. Man fishing requires union with Christ. And these disciples learned this at the very call of Christ as He called them to fellowship and to witness.

III. The Commitment

Required of the Disciples. In verses 20-22, we see the commitment required of the disciples. Jesus issues a call to these men to leave their vocations, leave their families, and follow after Him as their priority. We see Christ's greatness in that call. And the very fact that these men left their vocations and followed after Christ is a witness to how great He is. It is not a witness to their own decision, but to Jesus' greatness. Jesus' sovereignty is clear in this call. He says, "You must follow Me." Christ must have absolute priority in the lives of His servants. God's grace is absolutely free. We can do nothing to earn our salvation. But in receiving our salvation, God calls us to discipleship. Everything now must be transferred over to His Lordship. Jesus also calls us to follow Him. How is the call of Christ's discipleship impacting you today? My friend, there are only one of two responses. Christ's call may be rejected, or it may be gladly accepted. May God help you bow the knee to Christ in His Christ in His faithfulness and Lordship and in His discipleship today.

Getting the Message/Rev. Chris Shelton

Trials draw us nearer to Christ

Luke transitions form the joyful, flourishing new church in Antioch to details about terrible persecution breaking out in Jerusalem. "Herod the king laid violent hands on some who belonged to the church. He killed James the brother of John with the sword (verses 1-2)."

The Lord Jesus had warned his disciples that they would face persecution. In John 15 he said, "If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you." The hatred for the Lord stemmed from his words.

He spoke with the authority of God, warning people that they must repent and believe in him or they would die in their sins. His message was that he came to bring the salvation men cannot accomplish on their own. To refuse his words was to choose to remain enslaved to sin and the power of the devil. It is a message that eliminates any grounds for boasting and points people away from themselves to another for deliverance from this condition. Jesus message of good news is that given the plight of men, the plan of God that provides forgiveness of sins through the Son of God is the great salvation. He alone can give peace and life with God to

It is the love of God that gives such a Savior and salvation as a gift to sinful men. But the message is offensive to men who want to remain in their sinful passions. James the apostle undoubtedly had offended the Jewish leaders with his message of Christ. Thus they were pleased when Herod (Herod Agrippa) put him to death (Acts 12:3). The Lord Jesus was put on trial and mocked by Herod's uncle (Herod Antipas). The Lord still reigns, and James is now with him. Herod is not.

James was cut off early in his ministry. His brother John would go on to minister another 50 years or so. Both were beloved of the Lord. We don't know the number of our days; neither do we know what trials lie ahead. But if we know Christ, his sovereignty works all things for our good and his glory.

The death of James was not outside God's loving care for him. And it would not have surprised James. Jesus had told James he would share the cup of suffering with him (Matthew 20). James suffering was unto death. The Lord had told his disciples: "The hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God (John

The Lord said men do such things because they do not know God. James, knowing Christ and loving him, died as a witness for his name. If you don't know the Lord and have never believed in Christ, you need to see the misery of being estranged from God and the blessedness of having salvation in Christ. The time has come to call upon the name of the Lord.

But if you do know the Lord, don't be surprised at tribulation. Those he loves may go through all manner of suffering in this world. Tribulations are a part of our communion with Christ, who suffered for our sake. Trials draw us nearer to him. Samuel Rutherford said, "O, what I owe to the file, to the hammer, to the furnace of my Lord Jesus! Why should I balk at the plough of my Lord, that makes deep furrows on my soul? I know he is no idle gardener, for he purposes a crop."

Trials can awaken us from spiritual slumber. Jesus speaks to his people to be watchful and awake for his coming, lest he come at a time we are not expecting. Those he loves he rebukes and disciplines. Hebrews 12:11 says, "For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it."

It is vital in trials to remember the Lord is our help and salvation in all circumstances. Richard Sibbes wrote, "God is our help, and what a ground of comfort this is! Therefore, I beseech you do not be discouraged. Mourn we may like doves, but not like beasts in our afflictions. A Christian must look at the trouble with one eye, and to God with the other. See God to be your salvation. Let the trouble be what it will, if God is your deliverer. Many times we betray ourselves into the hands of the devil for lack of thinking these things. God is our God. He loves us and preserves us."

Registration ending soon for fall Madison Ridgeland Youth Sports

john@onlinemadison.com

Registration is underway for the Madison Ridgeland Youth Club's upcoming fall baseball and football leagues.

Peggi Rafferty, league administrator for the club, said the program's goal is to develop players by giving them selfconfidence and an opportunity to make friends.

"Our league aims to be very positive while trying to provide children with extracurricular outlets to learn to be part of a team," Rafferty said. "In these leagues, it's not about winning or losing. It's about developing the player and a chance for kids to experience comradery between teammates and make new friends."

Registration for the baseball league runs until Aug. 31, and registration for the football league runs until Aug. 26.

The baseball league is open to children between the ages of 3 and 18 and split into eight groups: 3-year-olds, 4-yearolds, kindergartners, first and second grade, third and fourth grade, fifth and sixth grade, seventh and eighth grade, and ninth through 12th grade.

"Our baseball league will play six games in Madison and Ridgeland," Rafferty said. "We are so grateful for the support from both cities and for them allowing us to use their facilities, which are Liberty Park in Madison, and Hite Wolcott and Freedom Ridge in Ridgeland."

Austin Cooley of Madison, whose son Jackson Cooley has played in the baseball league for three years, said he's thoroughly enjoyed working with the kids and his son.

"It's great seeing how much fun they have learned and playing the game of baseball," Cooley said. "Watching their skills grow and develop throughout the season is very rewarding."

Sara Sahler of Madison, whose son Gregory Sahler has played in the baseball league for four years, said she has a fun time watching her son play in the league.

"It's a great experience and is always a fun time," Sahler said. "I recommend signing your child up. We are looking forward to the fall ball."

The football league is open to children in third to seventh grade and split into three groups: third grade, fourth and fifth grade, and seventh grade.

Rafferty said this league will also play six games, with an additional playoff and championship game, with the championship taking place on the week before Thanksgiving.

"We've formed a league with the Northwest Rankin Association to give the kids some different opponents to play against," Rafferty said. 'Madison games will be at Liberty Park, and Northwest Rankin games will be played at Northwest Rankin Athletic Association Soccer Complex right off Spillway Road in Flowood."

Rafferty said the football league has the same philosophy as the baseball league.

"Our purpose with football is to allow our players to see if they enjoy the sport before they go off to play for their middle school and high school," she said. "This can be a way for them to learn the sport away from school in a more relaxed environment."

Canton Academy welcomes new coaches

By COURTNEY WARREN news@onlinemadison.com

With a new school year comes a great deal of change for the Canton Academy Panthers. After recently welcoming new headmaster Tripp McCarty, the Panthers have also brought on an entirely new football coaching staff, new head softball, new head girls basketball coach, and a new baseball staff.

With new coaching positions also came a new principal, Coach Ryan Laster. Laster was previously at Washington School, where he taught and coached football. Before his time at Washington, he was a head coach and head of school at Lee Academy in Lee, Arkansas. He has been at CA all summer and is excited for the school year.

"Our biggest challenge is change. Not everyone likes change, but change is good, and we're making changes for the positive. It will take some time to get used to it all and build some new relationships. Once our faculty and staff and parents see the change is for the better, everything will go smoothly," he said.

Laster made the transition to Canton with his son, Taylor, who will be a freshman, and his wife Misty, who is a special education teacher. The two have been married for sixteen years.

Laster will also serve as an assistant baseball coach and the defensive coordinator for the football team.

The gridiron will look different with Head Coach Gage Posey on the sidelines, along with his new staff.

After being in medical school for two years, Posey realized his true passion was helping and coaching young athletes. It was then he made the decision to trade his lab coat for a whistle.

This is Posey's first head coaching position, and he said, "I was nervous at first, because we got a new coaching staff, and I would put this staff up against anyone in the state. They've been very helpful to me in regards to learning the ups and downs of head coaching so far, and I'm really excited for the

Posey said the players have made the transition worthwhile.

"One thing that stands out is the team chemistry. They all get along really well and push each other. For example, I asked just the quarterbacks to come train with me a few days ago, and twenty-one kids showed up. They all want to work, and they all want to work together."

The Panthers will face off against Sylva Bay Academy on August 13, and Posey said, "I feel confident with where we're at right now. I think we can expect big things from Canton this year."

Also joining the staff is Robbie Isonhood, offensive line coach, who has previously coached at Parklane Academy and Centerville Academy.

"I actually started coaching in 2008 and was thrown into the offensive line under Justin Sawyer, who played at Ole Miss. I learned most of my basics from Justin. We won a state championship that year, and, in 2009, Justin left, and I became the head offensive line coach."

"I also coach the defensive line. I like coaching the big boys. They are the most underappreciated guys on the football team, in my opinion, and I enjoy spending my time with them," said Isonhood.

Coach Isonhood is another Panther who is returning home.

He graduated from CA in 1986. "I moved back home, and I've known Coach McCarty for forever. Coach McCarty knew I'd moved back home and called to see if I had any interest in coming to coach the football team," he said.

Forever bleeding black and gold, Isonhood is excited to be back on the field.

Another CA alum, AB Williams, is returning sooner than most. A recent college graduate and son of CA Athletic Director Ben Williams, AB serves as the weight room director, head strength coach, and assistant lineman coach.

Being so close in age to some of the players, AB said, "It's definitely a double-edged sword; being close to their age, I can relate to them more, but also I have to demand that respect from them. I have to find that balance with them."

"I'm looking forward to seeing if this team meets what they are capable of. They have a lot of talent and can accomplish a lot, so I'm ready to see if they can meet those standards," he added.

Also new to the CA coaching staff - but not new to CA - is Head Softball Coach William Whitehead.

Coach Whitehead is an experienced softball coach, having led several local programs successfully to state championship levels. With thirteen years coaching varsity softball at Tri-County Academy, East Rankin Academy, and Jackson Academy, coaching summer tournament softball teams ranging in ages of eight to eighteen, and serving as a softball umpire and basketball referee for MHSAA and MAIS, he strives to build a strong work ethic, mental toughness, and life lessons for his players that can benefit them in the future.

Coach Whitehead is a graduate of CA, class of 1980, and is looking forward to coming back where he has had fond memories throughout his sports career.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Madison and have one daughter, Jessica Whitehead Browning.

Brandy Hall has also joined CA as the new head girls basketball coach.

In January of 2009, at the age of 19, Hall became her mother's junior high and high school girls' assistant at Adams County Christian School and started coaching her own third and fourth-grade team. In August of 2013, Hall was named junior high girls head coach. She led this team, which she had coached through elementary school, to three undefeated junior high seasons.

In August of 2017, Coach Hall took the head junior high/assistant high school girls coaching position at Centreville Academy, and, in May of 2018, she was named high school girls head coach. In her three years as head coach at Centreville, Hall led her junior high girls to three district championships and her high school girls to a state championship and two overall tournament appearances, advancing to the top eight this past March.

Hall was chosen to coach in the MAIS All-Star game in 2019 and 2021 and was named MAIS Coach of the Year in 2020.

"To some, basketball may be just a game, but the same as in life, there are more lessons to be learned than the sport itself. I've always said that God's plan is bigger than mine, and it is. I thank Him for giving me the opportunity to further my career here at Canton Academy, and I'm looking forward to meeting and working with some great people," said Hall.

Panthers will begin their school year athletics with soft-ball and football and fans are ready to see some winning scores from these new coaches.

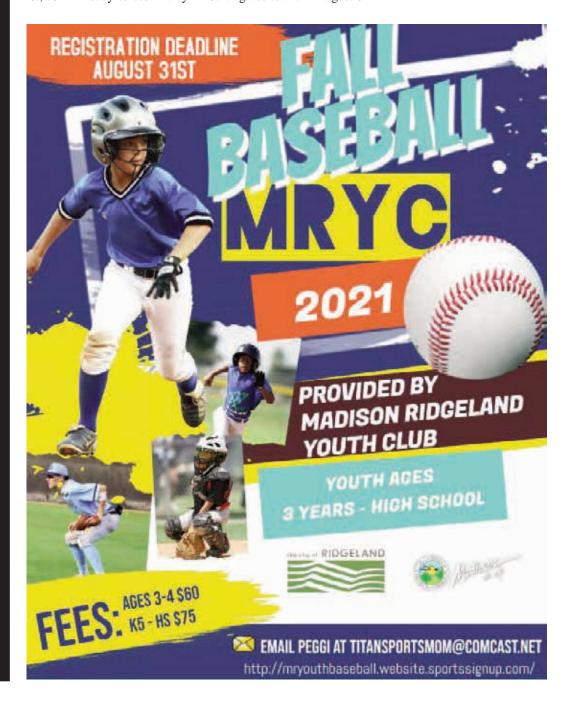

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE PROPOSED BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX LEVIES FOR THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR FOR THE CITY OF GLUCKSTADT, MISSISSIPPI

The City of Gluckstadt will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for fiscal year 2020-2021 at 6 p.m. on Aug. 26, 2021, in the Parish Hall of St. Joseph Catholic Church, 127 Church Rd, Gluckstadt, MS 39110.

The decision not to impose the ad valorem tax millage rate for fiscal year 2020-21 means for the current fiscal year, you will pay no ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental real property, even if the assessed value of your property has increased for fiscal year 2020-21.

Archie found guilty in Party City murder

By DUNCAN DENT duncan@onlinemadison.com

RIDGELAND — The main suspect in a deadly armed robbery that occurred at the Party City here in 2012 was sentenced to life without parole after roughly nine hours of jury deliberation on Friday evening.

Joshua Leon Archie, 30, was sentenced to life without parole for a capital murder charge and five years for a conspiracy to commit a robbery charge.

The jury made their decisions around 8:30 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 13 in Madison County Circuit Court after roughly nine hours of deliberation, according to District Attorney Bubba Bramlett. The trial began on Aug. 9.

"It's over," Bramlett said simply, noting that it was probably the oldest case they had working at the time the time.

The state did not seek the death penalty.

This was the third time Archie had stood trial for murder in relation to the incident. The previous two trials in 2017 and 2019 were declared mistrials.

The incident in question involved Archie and an accomplice, Undra Ward, in the murder of 68-year-old Party City Manager Bobby Adams in what law enforcement say was an inside robbery job Oct. 26, 2012.

Archie was a former Party City employee and is charged with murdering Adams on Oct. 26, 2012. Adams was closing the store he managed for 20 years that night when Archie allegedly burst through an unlocked back door. Officials say Adams attempted to grab the gun from Archie and was shot and killed in the process.

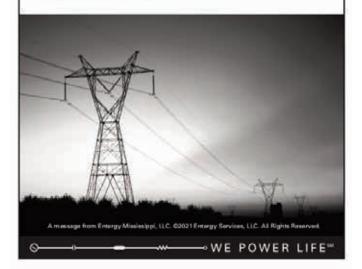

Archie then allegedly entered the store wearing a ski mask and gloves and demanded another employee, Undra Ward, to place money into a book bag, but he was in on the deal.

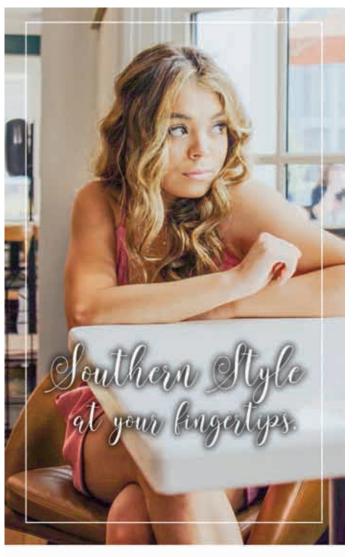

Ward, 27, has already pleaded guilty in exchange for 45 years.

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE PROPOSED BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX LEVIES FOR THE UPCOMING FISCAL YEAR FOR MADISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

The Madison County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for fiscal year 2022 on September 7, 2021, 9:00 a.m. in the Board Room of the Chancery/Administrative Office Complex, 125 West North Street, Canton, Mississippi.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors, exclusive of the Madison County School District, is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $136,269,373.77. 41.1 percent or $56,023,758.53 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $130,326,574.50. Of that amount, 43.7 percent or $56,975,518.33 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors, inclusive of the Madison County School District, is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $326,773,503.88. 42.3 percent or $138,108,606.53 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For next fiscal year, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $324,033,330.25. Of that amount, 41.9 percent or $135,635,177.33 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

For next fiscal year, the Madison County Board of Supervisors plans to not increase your ad valorem tax millage rate, for property outside of the North Madison County Fire Protection District.

For properties affected by the newly created North Madison County Fire Protection District, the Madison County Board of Supervisors plans to increase your ad valorem tax millage rate by 8.0 mills, a total increase of $200,000.00 in additional ad valorem tax collections. This increase means that you will pay more in ad valorem taxes on your real property. This millage will be specifically used to contract for fire protection services and to cover the increased costs of fire protection in rural and lower density areas in north Madison County.

A millage rate of 37.59 mills will produce the same amount of revenue from ad valorem taxes as was collected in the 2021 fiscal year. The millage rate for the 2021 fiscal year was 38.13.

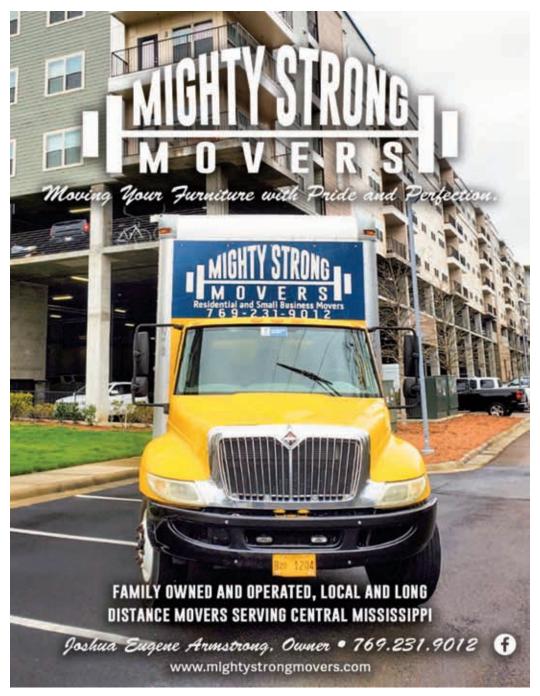

The decision to not increase the ad valorem tax millage rate for fiscal year 2022 above the current fiscal year's ad valorem tax millage rate means you will not pay more in ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental property outside of the North Madison County Fire Protection District, unless the assessed value of your property has increased for fiscal year 2022.

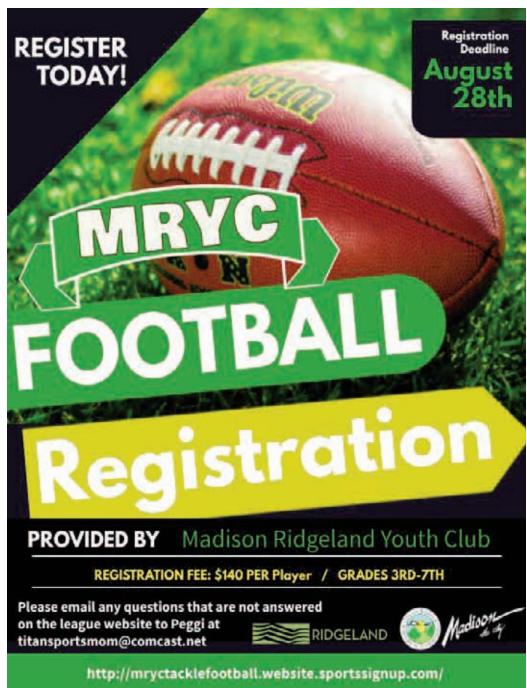

Any citizen of Madison County, Mississippi is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed budget and tax levies for fiscal year 2022 and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken.

Witness the signature of said Board of Supervisors, this the 2nd day of August 2021.
